The signs are missing from the intersections of High St. and E. Holland Street, and High St. and Depot St.

Damage: $200.

Driver Reports Damage To Trailer

Larry D. Stock, Two Rivers, Wis., reported the trailer he was driving was damaged while at the Erie Sauder Distribution Center.

Stock told Archbold police officers the damage occurred on Wednesday, June 24, while his trailer was being loaded.

The police report states Sauder personnel use large air bags to hold loads in place inside trailers. The bag had possibly been overinflated, causing the side of the trailer to bow out.

Primary Transportation Service, of Brillion, Wis., owns the trailer.
