OBITUARIES

PAID MEMORIALS

Henry F. zumFelde

Henry F. zumFelde died on Nov. 10, 2009, in his home on the family farm surrounded by his family.
Henry was born on this same farm near Wauseon on July 6, 1918 to Fred and Mary zumFelde. He married Loretta "Becky" Beck in 1941.

Henry F. zumFelde

The family farmed near Wauseon from 1934 until 1970 and raised a champion herd of Guernsey cows. Henry was a livestock judge at county fairs for many years.

He worked for the Ohio Turnpike for 26 years and retired in 1981 as the Western District Supervisor for toll collectors.

He also worked as a Fulton County auditor from 1951-55.

Henry was very active in church and community organizations. He was president of the Northwest Ohio Guernsey Breeders, received an honorary degree from Wauseon FFA, and was inducted into the Fulton County Agricultural Hall of Fame.

He also organized a 4-H club and served as an advisor for five years.

He was a member of the York Twp. Board of Education and the first president of the Wauseon Rotary Club, where he was also named a life member and a Paul Harris Fellow.

He had the honor of throwing out the ceremonial first pitch at the opening of the new Biddle Park ball diamonds this past May.

Henry was an active member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Wauseon, serving at various times as council president, trustee, and deacon.

In 1998, Henry organized German Lutheran Heritage of Northwest Ohio and was known for his ability to speak fluent German.

He was a founding member of the Black Swamp Driving Club, and was named an honorary life member of the Michigan Horse Drawn Vehicle Association. One of his greatest pleasures was giving carriage rides to people of all ages.

Henry enjoyed traveling with his wife to all 50 states and 17 foreign countries. He had special fondness for visiting Germany, where many zumFelde relatives still live.

He enjoyed woodworking and finished many clocks, beds, dressers, and five horse carriages. He made a cradle for his newborn great-grandson at the age of 82.

Henry also had a strong interest in genealogy, writing extensively on family history and assisting many area churches in translating church records written in old German script.

Henry had a lifelong interest in horses and enjoyed training and driving horses for work and pleasure.

In his later years, Henry enjoyed attending Wauseon basketball games and also traveled to see his granddaughter's games in Indiana.

First and foremost, he enjoyed spending time with his wife, children, and grandchildren. There are many special memories of grandpa's stories, jokes, and hugs.

Henry is survived by his wife of 68 years, Loretta "Becky" zumFelde. He is also survived by three sons, Paul (Suzanne) of Wauseon, Dale of Santa Rosa, Calif., and Roger (Evelyn) of Goshen, Ind., and four grandchildren, Kristi (Kevin) Rotroff, Brett zumFelde, Jakob zumFelde, and Marla zumFelde. Henry also had two great-grandchildren, Austin and Lukas Rotroff.

He was preceded in death by three children, Melvin, Karen, and Larry.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday at 11 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorials should be directed to Trinity Lutheran Church, Wauseon or a charity of the donor's choice.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.GrisierFH.com. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the Edgar-Grisier Funeral Home in Wauseon.

DEATH NOTICES

Beulah M. Zimmerman

Beulah M. Zimmerman, age 99, of Archbold, passed away on Nov. 9, 2009, at Fairlawn Haven Nursing Home.

She was born on March 31, 1910, near Grabill, Ind., the daughter of David and Ida (Sauder) Richer.

Beulah lived in the Archbold area most of her life. She was employed at Sauder Woodworking, along with numerous volunteer positions in the community.

Beulah was actively involved as a member at West Clinton Mennonite Church, near Pettisville, Ohio, teaching children and participating in the Mennonite Women's Group.

She enjoyed traveling, spending time with her family, cooking, reading, and was an encourager to others. Beulah was known for her handmade crafts and giving them as gifts to her family and friends. During her years of living in the Fairlawn Haven complex, Beulah participated in many group activities.

Beulah is survived by four stepchildren: Carolyn (Ralph) metzler of Archbold, Ohio, Marilyn (Morris) Huffman of Colorado Springs, Colo., Emogene (Harold) Buerge of Kernersville, N.C., Roger (Ethelyn) Zimmerman of Jackson, Miss.; 10 step-grandchildren; 17 step-great-grandchildren; and two step-great-great-grandchildren.

Her husband, Arlen, her parents, and her brothers, Lester, Orland, Lawrence, and Ora Richer preceded her in death.

A memorial services was held Thursday, Nov. 12, 2009, at 4 p.m., at the Fairlawn Haven chapel with Pastor Jess Engle and Pastor Naomi Engle officiating. Burial followed in the Pettisville Cemetery.

Short Funeral Home in Archbold was in charge of the arrangements.

Memorial donations may be given to Fairlawn Haven.

Police Investigate Alleged Assault Case

Archbold police officers are investigating an assault that allegedly occurred at the East Garden Apartment Complex, Friday, Nov. 13.

Few details are available. Thom Ross, Archbold assistant police chief, said a 21-year-old woman who resides in the apartment complex allegedly assaulted a 17-year-old rural Archbold girl.

The alleged victim did not require medical treatment. No charges have been filed.

Breaking And Entering Turns Out To Be Accident

What was originally reported as a possible breaking and entering turned out to be an accident.

Deb Lauber, 316 Walnut Street, told Archbold police officers someone had tampered with her garage door sometime between Sunday, Nov. 8 and Friday, Nov. 13. It was later determined that a mail carrier had accidentally turned the garage door handle, locking the door.

The door was damaged when Lauber attempted to open it.

The police report states the issue was resolved between the homeowner and the Archbold Post Office.

Sauder Vehicles Damaged

Someone smeared a sticky substance over the windows and door handles of 11 vehicles owned by the Sauder Woodworking Company sometime between 11 pm, Friday Nov. 13, and 6:45 am the following day.

The damage occurred while the vehicles were parked in a company parking lot. Sauder Security reported the incident to Archbold police.

No permanent damage was done to the vehicles.
